

34-41-107 No physician-patient relationship created.

A physician-patient relationship is not created between an employee, volunteer, prospective employee, or prospective volunteer, and the local governmental entity, state institution of higher education, or any person performing the test, solely by the establishment of a drug testing program in the workplace.

Enacted by Chapter 18, 1994 General Session